Cerešnický
(Czechoslovakia)

^V ^V ^V
Ceresnický (CHAIR-esh-neeck-kee) was originally a women's dance from southeast Moravia. It was presented at the 1979 University of the Pacific Folk Dance Camp and other camps and workshops in the summer of 1979 by František Bonuš, who taught it as a mixed circle dance with couple and small group variations. Traditionally the sequence can be at the discretion of the leader. The sequence as written here is the one most commonly done.
