

REDIWA

(Swabian Turkey, a German language island in Hungary)

Record: Tanz EP 58124

Steps: Waltz, Polka

Formation: Couples around the ring in ballroom position, men with back to center of circle.

Fig. I One waltz turn with two steps. Point joined hands in LOD and move forward with two waltz steps, beginning on outside feet.
Repeat three more times

Fig. II One turn with two Polka steps.
dance straight forward with two Polka steps.
repeat three more times.

The 'Redowa' was a fashionable ballroom dance at the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th century. It is said to have had its origin in Checkoslovakia, "Rediwa" is a survival of this dance type.

