

VLAŠKO KOLO Yugoslavian

From the town of Zāhečar in eastern Serbia.

"Vlaško" means of the Vlacko, a nomadic tribe of sheepherders. Their sheep graze in the mountains in summer and in winter they seek new pasture in the warmer valleys.

Hands in belt hold, L over R.

PATTERN

meter 4/4
hands held down

- I Measure I-face R Line of Direction
 1-R to R
 2-
 3-L
 4-
- Measure II
 1-R
 2-
 3-L
 4#
- Measure III-facing center, moving to R
 1-hop on L
 &-R to R
 2-L close
 3-R to R
 4-hop on R
- Measure IV-opposite of Measure III, or
 1-hop on R
 &-L to L
 2-R close
 3-L to L
 &R in place
 4-L in place

Do step I until leader calls a change

continued...

II Facing and moving R

Measure I

1-hop on L

&-R

2-L

3-hop on L

&-R

4-L

Right

Measure II facing center, moving to R

1-R

2-bounce a little on R

3-L

4-bounce a little on L

Measure III-

- repeat measures two and three from step I

Do step 2 until leader calls change.